To avoid abandonment of this application, applicant must timely file one of the following replies: (1) an amendment, affidavit, or other evidence, which places the application in condition for allowance; (2) a Notice of Appeal (with appeal fee) in compliance with 37 CFR 41.31; or (3) a Request for Continued Examination (RCE) in compliance with 37 CFR 1.114. The reply must be filed within one of the following time periods: a) <input checked="" type="checkbox"/> The period for reply expires 6 months from the mailing date of the final rejection. b) <input type="checkbox"/> The period for reply expires on: (1) the mailing date of this Advisory Action, or (2) the date set forth in the final rejection, whichever is later. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the mailing date of the final rejection. Examiner Note: If box 1 is checked, check either box (a) or (b). ONLY CHECK BOX (b) WHEN THE FIRST REPLY WAS FILED WITHIN TWO MONTHS OF THE FINAL REJECTION. See MPEP 706.07(f). Extensions of time may be obtained under 37 CFR 1.136(a). The date on which the petition under 37 CFR 1.136(a) and the appropriate extension fee have been filed is the date for purposes of determining the period of extension and the corresponding amount of the fee. The appropriate extension fee under 37 CFR 1.17(a) is calculated from: (1) the expiration date of the shortened statutory period for reply originally set in the final Office action; or (2) as set forth in (b) above, if checked. Any reply received by the Office later than three months after the mailing date of the final rejection, even if timely filed, may reduce any earned patent term adjustment. See 37 CFR 1.704(b). NOTICE OF APPEAL 2. <input type="checkbox"/> The Notice of Appeal was filed on _____. A brief in compliance with 37 CFR 41.37 must be filed within two months of the date of filing the Notice of Appeal (37 CFR 41.37(a)), or any extension thereof (37 CFR 41.37(e)), to avoid dismissal of the appeal. Since a Notice of Appeal has been filed, any reply must be filed within the time period set forth in 37 CFR 41.37(a). AMENDMENTS 3. <input checked="" type="checkbox"/> The proposed amendment(s) filed after a final rejection, but prior to the date of filing a brief, will not be entered because (a) <input checked="" type="checkbox"/> They raise new issues that would require further consideration and/or search (see NOTE below); (b) <input checked="" type="checkbox"/> They raise the issue of new matter (see NOTE below); (c) <input type="checkbox"/> They are not deemed to place the application in better form for appeal by materially reducing or simplifying the issues for appeal; and/or (d) <input type="checkbox"/> They present additional claims without canceling a corresponding number of finally rejected claims. NOTE: See Continuation Sheet. (See 37 CFR 1.116 and 41.33(a)). 4. <input type="checkbox"/> The amendments are not in compliance with 37 CFR 1.121. Continuation of 3. NOTE: The amendments to independent claim 35 include the limitations previously presented in claims 9, 12, 13, 24, and 45. The addition of the limitations from claims 9, 12, and 13 would overcome the previously presented rejection on claim 35, as there are limitations that were previously addressed stating were not explicitly taught by the primary reference of Beckner. However, the combination of limitations from claims 9, 12, and 13 have not been considered together in a determination of patentability. Additionally, the scope of all claims dependent on claim 35 have now been altered as a new combination of limitations is presented that was not previously considered. New matter may be present in the newly created combinations. A new consideration on the combination of limitations and possible a new search in conjunction with the new limitations would be required before a proper determination on patentability can be made.

Continuation of 11. does NOT place the application in condition for allowance because: Applicant argues that the primary reference of Beckner fails to teach a number of limitations that have previously been presented in dependent claims. In response to applicant's arguments against the references individually, one cannot show nonobviousness by attacking references individually where the rejections are based on combinations of references. See In re Keller, 642 F.2d 413, 208 USPQ 871 (CCPA 1981); In re Merck & Co., 800 F.2d 1091, 231 USPQ 375 (Fed. Cir. 1986). It is the combination of Beckner with the teachings of additional references that make the claims obvious as currently written.

Additionally, Applicant argues that the basis weight of the paper of Beckner does not match the basis weight as presented in the instant specification, and that there is no reason to try to improve the retention of the paper. In response to applicant's argument that the references fail to show certain features of applicant's invention, it is noted that the features upon which applicant relies (i.e., the importance of retention and a specific basis weight of less than 100 g/m<sup>2</sup>) are not recited in the rejected claim(s). Although the claims are interpreted in light of the specification, limitations from the specification are not read into the claims. See In re Van Geuns, 988 F.2d 1181, 26 USPQ2d 1057 (Fed. Cir. 1993).

The remainder of the arguments focus on how Beckner fails to teach the limitations presented in the pending amendment, which is moot as the scope of the claims as currently presented has not been previously considered.
